403. ENTRIES AND CONFIRMATION

- 403.1. All European Athletics Member Federations in good standing shall be entitled to enter athletes in the European Athletics U23 Championships.
- 403.2.1. No athlete may take part in the European Athletics U23 Championships unless entered by the European Athletics Member Federation which he/she is eligible to represent in accordance with the IAAF Rules.

- 403.2.2. No athlete who, pursuant to IAAF Rule 40, has been declared ineligible to compete for at least 2 (two) years may take part in the edition of the European Athletics U23 Championships next following the conclusion of the period of ineligibility.
- 403.2.3. European Athletics shall inform the suspended athlete in writing of his/her ineligibility according to regulation 403.2.2 to take part in the next European Athletics U23 Championships promptly upon receiving notification of such suspension from the IAAF. Any suspended athlete who is of the opinion that Regulation 403.2.2 improperly applies to him/her may, within 20 days of being informed by European Athletics, refer the matter to the European Athletics Council. The athlete may appeal against the determination of the European Athletics Council to the Court of Arbitration for Sports (CAS) in accordance with Article 38 par. 1 to 3 of the European Athletics Constitution.
- 403.3. Only athletes aged at least 20 (twenty) and not more than 22 (twenty two) years on 31 December of the year of the competition may participate in the European Athletics U23 Championships.
- 403.4. Every athlete entered in the European Athletics U23 Championships shall, upon the request of the Technical Delegate, produce official documentary evidence of his or her date of birth.
- 403.5. Each European Athletics Member Federation may enter up to 4 (four) athletes in each individual event of whom up to 3 (three) may participate provided all of them shall have achieved the qualifying standard for that event (see 408.1.3).
- 403.6. Alternatively to 403.5, each European Athletics Member Federation may enter one athlete in each individual event if such athlete has not achieved the qualifying standard for that event (see 408.1.3).
- 403.7. Each European Athletics Member Federation may enter 1 (one) team in each relay event. Up to 6 (six) athletes may be entered for each relay. From these 6 (six) and from any other athletes entered for any event in the European Athletics U23 Championships, the 4 (four) athletes to participate must be nominated at the time specified for the Final Declaration.
- 403.8. Preliminary Entries: Not later than 4 (four) months before the first day of the European Athletics U23 Championships, each European Athletics Member Federation shall send to European Athletics (usually via the teams' on-line entry system) a preliminary list of entries, indicating its anticipated numbers of athletes per event and the numbers of accompanying officials.
- 403.9. Final Entries: Not later than 10 (ten) days before the first day of the European Athletics U23 Championships, each European Athletics Member Federation shall send to European Athletics a final list of its entries, plus the names of accompanying officials. No subsequent changes may be made thereto without the consent of European Athletics. Final Entry information shall be supplied in the manner to be prescribed by European Athletics (usually via the teams' on-line entry system) and shall include such details as required by European Athletics, including the names and best performances of each athlete.
- 403.10. Final Declarations: Confirmation of Final Entries and the Final Declaration of athletes to compete shall be made according to the procedures defined in the Team Manual.
- 403.11. European Athletics may reduce financial support (for travel, board/accommodation grants, etc.) to any European Athletics Member Federation which, after having announced its participation, does not take part or attends the competition with a number of athletes and officials materially higher or lower than the number stated in the Preliminary Entry (403.8 above). The latter applies only if the Preliminary Entry is more than 4 (four).

404. APPLICATIONS TO STAGE THE EUROPEAN ATHLETICS U23 CHAMPIONSHIPS

404.1. Any European Athletics Member Federation may apply to stage the European Athletics U23 Championships provided that the proposed venue and city comply with the criteria established by European Athletics. Prior to making the formal application, each potential bidder shall:

- i. Participate in the long term planning by indicating the interest in the annual questionnaire signed by the Member Federation President & General Secretary
- ii. Attend the bidding seminar.

European Athletics shall be entitled not to accept any unrealistic announcement or if it was not indicated according to i and to declare invalid the application of any bidder that shall not have attended ii.

404.2. Each applicant shall complete the European Athletics official application forms and supply such information and undertakings as European Athletics shall require. The applications shall be completed in English and any application that is not fully and properly completed may be regarded as invalid.

404.3. The European Athletics Council shall announce the time- and deadlines for applications and these shall normally include:

- i. Indication of interest in questionnaire of long term planning by 30 November, 4 (four) years before the year of the European Athletics U23 Championships which is the deadline to be considered as a candidate for bidding.
- ii. Confirmation of candidature, with the name of the bid city, to be made by 31 March, 3 (three) years before the year of the European Athletics U23 Championships. The candidature form must be signed by the Member Federation and City.
- iii. Formal application to be submitted within 5 (five) months of ii.
- iv. Decision of the European Athletics Council within 12 (twelve) months of ii.

404.4. The written undertakings required to be submitted with the application shall normally include:

- i. The bidding European Athletics Member Federation's undertaking to respect the applicable Rules and Regulations of the IAAF, European Athletics and other competent authorities and to enter into an organising contract with European Athletics.
- ii. A guarantee(s) from the owner(s) that all official sites used for the event, including the stadium and road race courses shall be free of all commercial and non commercial advertising, identifications and/or franchises.
- iii. A letter of intent by a television broadcaster of the bidders' country to act as host broadcaster in accordance with the requirements of European Athletics.
- iv. The undertakings in writing of relevant national, regional and other authorities that they support the application.
- v. A detailed budget of income and expenditure for the event.

404.5. Other than in exceptional circumstances, European Athletics will not accept any application if, at the time of announcing the confirmation of candidature for staging the European Athletics U23 Championships, the stadium which is foreseen for the event is not completed. If an European Athletics Member Federation feels that there are exceptional circumstances it must inform European Athletics at the time of the candidature (Regulation 404.3.ii) accordingly and send together all relevant documentation (construction plans, timelines and guarantees) and European Athletics shall have an absolute discretion whether or not to accept the confirmation of candidature. If an application is based on an uncompleted stadium, such stadium must be completed fully equipped and ready for use at least 1½ years before the anticipated date of the European Athletics U23 Championships.

- 404.6. The European Athletics Council shall be entitled to amend or vary the above procedures if it is of the opinion that it is in the interests of the European Athletics U23 Championships.

405. TECHNICAL REQUIREMENTS OF THE VENUE

- 405.1. The European Athletics U23 Championships shall be staged in a stadium and city which are appropriate to the event. European Athletics may establish criteria by which the suitability of a proposed venue may be decided. The city shall be of an appropriate size and standing and the stadium shall have modern facilities and be fully equipped in conformity with the respective IAAF rules.

406. DOPING CONTROL

- 406.1. Doping control shall be conducted in accordance with the respective IAAF Rules and Guidelines and shall be carried out under the supervision of the European Athletics Doping Control Delegate.

407. THE ORGANISING CONTRACT

- 407.1 Immediately after the decision of the European Athletics Council to appoint an organiser, the appointed European Athletics Member Federation shall enter into an organising contract with European Athletics, such contract to establish the respective rights and obligations of the parties in relation to the European Athletics U23 Championships.

408. THE RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF THE EUROPEAN ATHLETICS

- 408.1. Notwithstanding the organising contract, European Athletics shall retain the overall care and responsibility of the European Athletics U23 Championships. In exercise of this role, the European Athletics Council shall:
- 408.1.1. Decide the dates, venue and the organiser.
- 408.1.2. Appoint Delegates and other persons (see 411.3).
- 408.1.3. Set qualifying standards for entry to the European Athletics U23 Championships. Such standards shall normally be established not later than 30 April in the year preceding that in which the respective European Athletics U23 Championships will be held and must be achieved in bona fide competition (either indoors or outdoors) between the 1st January in the year preceding the year in which the European Athletics U23 Championships are held and the closing date for Final Entries. The European Athletics Council shall be entitled to vary the qualifying conditions if it is the interests of the European Athletics U23 Championships so to do.
- 408.1.4. Decide the distribution of free places (quotas) as a basis for the subventions to the European Athletics Member Federations (each European Athletics Member federation shall be allocated free places for at least 1 (one) male and 1 (one) female athlete).

408.1.5 Approve the procedure for deciding the timetable of events.
