

EUROPEAN THROWING CUP

1001. PROMOTION AND RIGHTS

- 1001.1. The European Athletic Association (hereinafter European Athletics) shall promote a European Throwing Cup every year.
- 1001.2. All rights in and arising from the European Throwing Cup are the exclusive property of European Athletics. These rights include but are not limited to rights of ownership, marketing, advertising, broadcasting, filming, televising and all or any other means of exploitation. No other entity may exercise any of these rights without the written consent of European Athletics.

1002. PROGRAMME, STRUCTURE AND SCORING

- 1002.1. The European Throwing Cup shall be staged on (normally) 2 (two) days and in accordance with the applicable Competition, Advertising, Doping and other relevant Rules and Regulations of the International Association of Athletics Federations (IAAF). IAAF Rule 180.5 (determining the order of competition) shall apply.
- 1002.2. The programme shall comprise the following events:
- Senior Men and Women: Shot Put; Discus Throw; Hammer Throw; Javelin Throw.
Under 23 Men and Women: Shot Put; Discus Throw; Hammer Throw; Javelin Throw.
- 1002.3. The European Throwing Cup comprises separate events for men's and women's teams representing European Athletics Member Federations. Each event may, according to the numbers entered, be divided into 2 (two) or more groups considering as much information as possible about the performances of all athletes so that, normally, the best performers compete in the same group. In principle the distribution will be based on the best performances of the athletes since 1 January in the year preceding the date of the competition. Personal best performance and medals achieved at major events can be also considered by the Technical Delegate for the purpose of the distribution per groups. The final distribution is under the discretion of the Technical Delegate. In any case all participating athletes have the right to 6 (six) attempts, and the participation order for each event shall follow the same criteria of the groupings composition in a way that the best ranked athlete throws in the last position.
- 1002.4. European Athletics Member Federations not entering teams may enter athletes to compete as individuals, each event being considered separately.
- 1002.5. All European Athletics Members Federations in good standing shall be entitled to participate in the European Throwing Cup.
- 1002.6. No athlete may take part in the European Throwing Cup unless entered by the European Athletics Member Federation which he/she is eligible to represent in accordance with the IAAF Rules.

1002.6.1 Except in the Shot Put (men) and Hammer Throw (men), only athletes aged at least 16 (sixteen) years on 31 December of the year of the competition may participate in the European Throwing Cup.

Each athlete may only be entered in one age group of an event at the European Throwing Cup and he/she can only compete in the age group for which he/she was entered. For the avoidance of doubt an athlete can be entered in different age group in different events, but cannot compete in the same event in two age groups.

1002.6.2 Only athletes aged at least 18 (eighteen) years on 31 December of the year of the competition may participate in the Shot Put and Hammer Throw (men).

1002.6.3 Only athletes aged at least 16 (sixteen) and not more than 22 (twenty two) years on 31 December of the year of the competition may participate in the Under 23 events.

1002.7. Each team shall consist of up to 3 (three) athletes entered in each event for Senior Men and Senior Women of which a maximum of 2 (two) may participate and 2 (two) athletes in each event for Under 23 Men and Women of which a maximum of 1 (one) may participate.

1002.8. The finishing positions of the men's and women's teams shall be determined separately.

1002.9. The finishing positions of the Senior and Under 23 teams shall be determined separately.

1002.10. Each team's score shall be determined according to the best performance of its highest finishing athlete in each event and shall be the aggregate of points attributed to those performances according to the International Scoring Tables. The team achieving the highest number of points shall be the winner, and so on.

1002.11. If two or more teams have an equality of scores calculated according to 1002.10, the tie shall be decided in favour of the team containing the athlete achieving the highest individual score from a single event. If the tie remains the second highest individual score will be considered and so on.

1002.12. Any team finishing without a scoring athlete in all 4 (four) events shall not be counted in the teams classification.

1002.13. The points attributable to the best performance of each athlete in each event shall be combined into individual athletes' classification list(s).

1003. ENTRIES AND CONFIRMATION

1003.1. Each European Athletics Member Federation may enter one team or, alternatively, individuals.

1003.2. Preliminary Entries: Not later than 3 (three) months (14:00 CET) before the date of the European Throwing Cup, each European Athletics Member Federation shall send to European Athletics (usually via the teams' on-line entry system) a preliminary list of athletes and the numbers of accompanying officials.

1003.3. Final Entries: Not later than 10 (ten) days (14:00 CET) before the date of the European Throwing Cup, each European Athletics Member Federation shall send to European Athletics a final list of its athletes, plus the names of accompanying officials.
No additional athletes will be accepted after the closing of the Final Entries.

Exceptional changes related to already entered athletes may be accepted by European Athletics, until the final confirmation deadline of the first competition day. In case of such changes, the respective Member Federation would be accountable for a financial penalty of EUR 1500 per case.

This amount would be deducted from the Member Federation's European Athletics subvention at the end of the year.

Final Entry information shall be supplied in the manner to be prescribed by European Athletics (usually via the teams' on-line entry system) and shall include such details as required by European Athletics, including the names and best performances of each athlete.

1003.4. Final Declarations: Confirmation of the Final Declaration of athletes to compete shall be made according to the procedures defined in the Team Manual.

1004. APPLICATIONS TO STAGE THE EUROPEAN THROWING CUP

1004.1. Any European Athletics Member Federation may apply to stage a European Throwing Cup match provided that the proposed venue and city comply with the criteria established by European Athletics.

Prior to making the formal application, each potential bidder shall participate in the long term planning by indicating the interest in the annual questionnaire signed by the Member Federation President & General Secretary

European Athletics shall be entitled not to accept any unrealistic announcement or if it was not indicated in the long term planning questionnaire.

1004.2. Each applicant shall complete the European Athletics official application forms and supply such information and undertakings as European Athletics shall require. The applications shall be completed in English and any application that is not fully and properly completed may be regarded as invalid.

1004.3. The European Athletics Council shall announce the time- and deadlines for applications and these shall normally include:

- i. Indication of interest in questionnaire of long term planning by 30 November, 3 (three) years before the year of the European Throwing Cup which is the deadline to be considered as a candidate for bidding.

- ii. Confirmation of candidature to apply, with the name of the bid city, to be made by 30 September, 2 (two) years before the year of the European Throwing Cup. The candidature form must be signed by the Member Federation and City.
- iii. Formal application to be submitted within 2 (two) months of ii.
- iv. Decision of the European Athletics Council within 6 (six) months of ii.

1004.4. The written undertakings required to be submitted with the application shall normally include:

- i. The bidding European Athletics Member Federation's undertaking to respect the applicable Rules and Regulations of the IAAF, European Athletics and other competent authorities and to enter into an organising contract with European Athletics.
- ii. A guarantee(s) from the owner(s) that all official sites used for the event, including the competition venue shall be free of all commercial and non-commercial advertising, identifications and/or franchises.
- iii. A letter of intent by a television broadcaster of the bidders' country to act as host broadcaster in accordance with the requirements of European Athletics.
- iv. The undertakings in writing of relevant national, regional and other authorities that they support the application.
- v. A detailed budget of income and expenditure for the event.

1004.5. The European Athletics Council shall be entitled to amend or vary the above procedures if it is of the opinion that it is in the interests of the European Throwing Cup.

1005. TECHNICAL REQUIREMENTS OF THE VENUE

1005.1. The European Throwing Cup shall be staged in a venue and city which are appropriate to the event. European Athletics may establish criteria by which the suitability of a proposed venue may be decided. The city shall be of an appropriate size and standing and the competition venue shall have modern facilities and be fully equipped in conformity with the respective IAAF rules.

1005.2. The organiser shall be responsible for the provision of Electronic Distance Measurement for all events,

1006. DOPING CONTROL

1006.1. Doping control shall be conducted in accordance with the respective IAAF Rules and Guidelines and shall be carried out under the supervision of the European Athletics Doping Control Delegate.
