

EUROPEAN COMBINED EVENTS TEAM CHAMPIONSHIPS

701. PROMOTION AND RIGHTS

- 701.1. The European Athletic Association (hereinafter European Athletics) shall promote a European Team Championships in Decathlon for men and Heptathlon for women (hereinafter the European Combined Events Team Championships) every two years, in odd years.
- 701.2. All rights in and arising from the European Combined Events Team Championships are the exclusive property of European Athletics. These rights include but are not limited to rights of ownership, marketing, advertising, broadcasting, filming, televising and all or any other means of exploitation. No other entity may exercise any of these rights without the written consent of European Athletics.
- 701.2.1. For the strict and limited purpose of promoting European Athletics, the sport of Athletics or any particular athletics competitions and for non-commercial use, European Athletics may without charge and on a worldwide basis use any images of European athletes in any media at or in conjunction with any athletics competitions in which European Athletics has an ownership interest, including European Combined Events Team Championships.
- 701.2.2. Should an athlete not agree with such procedure, a written letter stating the reasons for this opposition shall be sent to the European Athletics Headquarters in Lausanne two (2) weeks prior to the respective event.
- 701.2.3. Furthermore, any competition images from any European Athletics events shall not be used by the athletes for commercial use. However, the use of event images on social media sites, as long as there is no commercial purpose, is not prohibited.
- 701.3. The athletes acknowledge and agree to European Athletics' use of the personal data, included but not limited to the first name, name, date of birth, club affiliation, results, in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation Act on Data Protection, as well as disclosure of athletes' personal data to European Athletics affiliates, employees, agents, representatives and third party organisations worldwide for the purpose of promotion of the sport and to provide statistics.
- 701.3.1. Athletes further acknowledge and agree to European Athletics' use of the personal data if required to do so by law or in the good faith belief that any such preservation or disclosure is reasonably necessary to comply with legal process, enforce these Regulations, respond to claims that any content violates the rights of third parties, or protect the rights, property, or personal safety of other users or the public.

702. PROGRAMME, STRUCTURE AND SCORING

- 702.1. The European Combined Events Team Championships shall be staged over 2 (two) consecutive days and in accordance with the applicable Competition, Advertising, Doping and other relevant Rules and Regulations of the International Association of Athletics Federations (IAAF).

- 702.2. The programme shall comprise the Decathlon for Men and the Heptathlon for Women.
- 702.3. The European Combined Events Team Championships comprises one single competition where men's and women's teams represent the respective European Athletics Member Federations.
- 702.4. All European Athletics Members Federations in good standing shall be entitled to participate in the European Team Championships Combined Events.
- 702.5. Each team shall consist of up to 8 (eight) athletes (4 male and 4 female athletes).
- 702.6. The participating teams shall be divided into a Super League (comprising 8 teams), a First League (comprising 8 teams) and a Second League (comprising the remaining teams). The Second League may also include athletes competing as individuals provided that European Athletics Member Federations of those athletes do not have teams participating in the Super League or First League, and that no European Athletics Member Federation may enter more than 4 (four) individual athletes in the Decathlon or Heptathlon respectively.
- 702.7. The Super League, the First and Second Leagues shall be each be regarded as a separate match and scored accordingly.
- 702.8. The finishing positions of the teams in each match shall be decided according to the aggregates of the points (according to the International Scoring Tables for Combined Events) earned by the 3 (three) highest scoring athletes in each Decathlon and Heptathlon, the team having the highest aggregate being the winner, and so on.
- 702.9. If two or more scoring teams have an equality of aggregate points, the tie shall be decided according to the aggregates of the placings of the six (three per each event) scoring athletes, on the assumption that the match had been a competition between individuals but after excluding non-scoring athletes. If the tie still exists, it shall be decided according to the relative positions of the highest scoring athlete in each team, considering both events and if it still remains the following highest scoring athlete is considered and so on.
- 702.10. A team with fewer than 6 (six) scoring athletes (three per each event) shall not be included in the teams' classification.
 - 702.10.1. If there are more than two non-scoring teams (with fewer than three athletes in each event) a normalisation rule will apply to allow fair comparison between men and women performances. This will be valid only when the number of female and male athletes is not the same otherwise the standard calculation for the teams scoring will apply. The scores shall be normalised for both men and for women by using a ratio with a set standard corresponding to the respective men and women World Record in the concerned disciplines¹. After the normalisation process the team(s) with the lower score will be relegated to the lower league. This regulation will apply only for calculation of the relegation purposes if there are more than two non-scoring teams and these scores will not be published as official results.

- 702.11. The teams finishing in first place in the Super League shall be the winners of the European Combined Events Team Championships.
- 702.12. After the conclusion of each year's European Combined Events Team Championships, teams shall be promoted or relegated as follows:
- 702.12.1. The lowest 2 (two) teams in the Super League shall be relegated to the First League;
- 702.12.2. The highest 2 (two) teams in the First League shall be promoted to the Super League;
- 702.12.3. The lowest 2 (two) teams in the First League shall be relegated to the Second League;
- 702.12.4. The highest 2 (two) teams in the Second League shall be promoted to the First League.
- 702.13. Special technical rules applicable to the European Combined Events Team Championships are defined in Appendix 1.
- 702.14. The European Athletics Council shall be entitled to amend or vary the above procedures if it is of the opinion that it is in the interests of the European Combined Events Team Championships.

703. ENTRIES AND CONFIRMATION

- 703.1. Each European Athletics Member Federation may enter one team comprising a maximum of 10 (ten) athletes (5 male and 5 female), out of which 8 (eight) athletes (4 male and 4 female) to compete or (in respect of the Second League only) individual athletes pursuant to 702.6.
- 703.1.1. Subject to the exceptions stated below, only athletes aged at least 16 (sixteen) years on 31 December of the year of the competition may participate in the European Combined Events Team Championships.
- 703.1.2. Only athletes aged at least 18 (eighteen) years on 31 December of the year of the competition may participate in the Decathlon.
- 703.2.1. Each European Athletics Member Federation may be represented only by athletes eligible to represent that European Athletics Member Federation in accordance with IAAF Rules.
- 703.3. Preliminary Entries: Not later than 3 (three) months (14:00 CET) before the first day of the European Combined Events Team Championships, each European Athletics Member Federation shall send to European Athletics (usually via the teams' on-line entry system) a preliminary list of athletes and the numbers of accompanying officials.

- 703.4. Final Entries: Not later than 10 (ten) days (14:00 CET) before the first day of the European Combined Events Team Championships, each European Athletics Member Federation shall send to European Athletics a final list of its athletes, plus the names of accompanying officials. Final Entry information shall be supplied in the manner to be prescribed by European Athletics (usually via the teams' on-line entry system) and shall include such details as required by European Athletics, including the names and best performances of each athlete.
- 703.5. Final Declarations: Confirmation of the Final Declaration of athletes to compete shall be made according to the procedures defined in the Team Manual.

704. APPLICATIONS TO STAGE THE EUROPEAN TEAM CHAMPIONSHIPS COMBINED EVENTS

- 704.1. Any European Athletics Member Federation may apply to stage a European Combined Events Team Championships match provided that the proposed venue and city comply with the criteria established by European Athletics.

Prior to making the formal application, each potential bidder shall participate in the long term planning by indicating the interest in the annual questionnaire signed by the Member Federation President & General Secretary

European Athletics shall be entitled not to accept any unrealistic announcement or if it was not indicated in the long term planning questionnaire.

- 704.2. Each applicant shall complete the European Athletics official application forms and supply such information and undertakings as European Athletics shall require. The applications shall be completed in English and any application that is not fully and properly completed may be regarded as invalid.
- 704.3. The European Athletics Council shall announce the time- and deadlines for applications and these shall normally include:
- i. Indication of interest in questionnaire of long term planning by 30 November, 2 (two) years before the year of the European Combined Events Team Championships which is the deadline to be considered as a candidate for bidding.
 - ii. Confirmation of candidature, with the name of the bid city, to be made by 31 May, 1 (one) year before the year of the European Combined Events Team Championships. The candidature form must be signed by the Member Federation and City.
 - iii. Formal application to be submitted within 2 (two) months of ii.
 - iv. Decision of the European Athletics Council in a timely manner.
- 704.4. The written undertakings required to be submitted with the application shall normally include:
- i. The bidding European Athletics Member Federation's undertaking to respect the applicable Rules and Regulations of the IAAF, European Athletics and other competent authorities and to enter into an organising contract with European Athletics.

- ii. A guarantee(s) from the owner(s) that all official sites used for the event, including the stadium shall be free of all commercial and non-commercial advertising, identifications and/or franchises.
- iii. A letter of intent by a television broadcaster of the bidders' country to act as host broadcaster in accordance with the requirements of European Athletics.
- iv. The undertakings in writing of relevant national, regional and other authorities that they support the application.
- v. A detailed budget of income and expenditure for the event.

704.5. Other than in exceptional circumstances, European Athletics will not accept any application if, at the time of announcing the confirmation of candidature for staging the European Combined Events Team Championships, the stadium which is foreseen for the event is not completed. If an European Athletics Member Federation feels that there are exceptional circumstances it must inform European Athletics at the time of the candidature (Regulation 704.3.ii) accordingly and send all relevant documentation (construction plans, timelines and guarantees) and European Athletics shall have an absolute discretion whether or not to accept the confirmation of candidature. If an application is based on an uncompleted stadium, such stadium must be completed fully equipped and ready for use at least 1½ years before the anticipated date of the European Combined Events Team Championships.

704.6. The European Athletics Council shall be entitled to amend or vary the above procedures if it is of the opinion that it is in the interests of the European Combined Events Team Championships.

705. TECHNICAL REQUIREMENTS OF THE VENUE

705.1. The European Combined Events Team Championships shall be staged in a stadium and city which are appropriate to the event. European Athletics may establish criteria by which the suitability of a proposed venue may be decided. The city shall be of an appropriate size and standing and the stadium shall have modern facilities and be fully equipped in conformity with the respective IAAF rules.

706. DOPING CONTROL

706.1. Doping control shall be conducted in accordance with the respective IAAF Rules and Guidelines and shall be carried out under the supervision of the European Athletics Doping Control Delegate.

707. THE ORGANISING CONTRACT

707.1. Immediately after the decision of the European Athletics Council to appoint an organiser, the appointed European Athletics Member Federation shall enter into an organising contract with European Athletics, such contract to establish the respective rights and obligations of the parties in relation to the European Team Championships Combined Events.

708. THE RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF THE EUROPEAN ATHLETICS

708.1. Notwithstanding the organising contract, European Athletics shall retain the overall care and responsibility of the European Combined Events Team Championships. In exercise of this role, the European Athletics Council shall:

APPENDIX 1.

1. Competition Rules

- 1.1. The divisions of the athletes into heats and/or groups, the order of attempts in field events and lane allocation for running events shall be decided by a draw conducted by European Athletics. Each participating team shall be allocated a letter which shall determine the order of attempts in the field events and lane allocation in running events in accordance with the appropriate chart appended below as Appendix 1A.

The allocation of the position of the athletes within one team (e.g. A1, A2, etc...) shall remain at the discretion of the participating teams. This has to be announced latest during the final confirmation procedure and cannot be changed for the different individual disciplines during the decathlon and heptathlon competitions (athlete allocated with position A1 remains in the same position for all the individual disciplines), except for High Jump and Pole Vault where IAAF Rule 200.7 will apply.

For the Second League the charts should be adopted according to the number of teams and individuals entered in the preliminary & final entries.

For the 1500 metres (for Decathlon men) / 800 metres (for Heptathlon women) the teams' distribution per heat shall be established by the Technical Delegate according to the teams scoring standings 1 (one) hour before the scheduled time for the first heat of each race. The best 4 (four) scored teams will compete in the same heat which shall be the second one.

- 1.2. When the High Jump and Pole Vault are divided into 2 (two) or more groups, the starting heights and progressions of raising the bar shall be the same in each group and shall go through the hereunder heights:

Decathlon:	High Jump.	1.80m	Progression – 3cm.
Decathlon:	Pole Vault.	4.00m	Progression – 10cm.
Heptathlon:	High Jump.	1.60m	Progression – 3cm.
