

EUROPEAN ATHLETICS CHAMPIONSHIPS

101. PROMOTION AND RIGHTS

101.1. The European Athletic Association (hereinafter European Athletics) shall promote a European Athletics Championships in every two years, in every even year.

101.2. All rights in and arising from the European Athletics Championships are the exclusive property of European Athletics. These rights include but are not limited to rights of ownership, marketing, advertising, broadcasting, filming, televising and all or any other means of exploitation. No other entity may exercise any of these rights without the written consent of European Athletics.

101.2.1. For the strict and limited purpose of promoting European Athletics, the sport of Athletics or any particular athletics competitions and for non-commercial use, European Athletics may without charge and on a worldwide basis use any images of European athletes in any media at or in conjunction with any athletics competitions in which European Athletics has an ownership interest, including European Athletics Championships.

101.2.2. Should an athlete not agree with such procedure, a written letter stating the reasons for this opposition shall be sent to the European Athletics Headquarters in Lausanne two (2) weeks prior to the respective event.

101.2.3. Furthermore, any competition images from any European Athletics events shall not be used by the athletes for commercial use. However, the use of event images on social media sites, as long as there is no commercial purpose, is not prohibited.

101.3. The athletes acknowledge and agree to European Athletics' use of the personal data, included but not limited to the first name, name, date of birth, club affiliation, results, in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation Act on Data Protection, as well as disclosure of athletes' personal data to European Athletics affiliates, employees, agents, representatives and third party organisations worldwide for the purpose of promotion of the sport and to provide statistics.

101.3.1. Athletes further acknowledge and agree to European Athletics' use of the personal data if required to do so by law or in the good faith belief that any such preservation or disclosure is reasonably necessary to comply with legal process, enforce these Regulations, respond to claims that any content violates the rights of third parties, or protect the rights, property, or personal safety of other users or the public.

102. PROGRAMME

102.1. The European Athletics Championships shall be staged over a minimum of 6 (six) and a maximum of 8 (eight) consecutive days and in accordance with the applicable Competition, Advertising, Doping and other relevant Rules and Regulations of the International Association of Athletics Federations (IAAF).

102.1.1. In the year of the Summer Olympic Games the European Athletics Championships shall be staged over 6 (six) days.

102.2. The programme shall comprise the following 24 (twenty-four) events for Men and 24 (twenty-four) events for Women:

Men	- Running	100m, 200m, 400m, 800m, 1500m, 5000m, 10000m, Marathon/Half Marathon, 110m hurdles, 400m hurdles, 3000m steeplechase, 4x100m relay, 4x400m relay

	- Heptathlon

Note: Marathon/Half Marathon includes both individual and team ranking. Thus, there are 25 (twenty-five) men and 25 (twenty-five) women events to be considered in the overall medal/standing ranking.

102.2.1. In the year of the Summer Olympic Games Race Walking events will not be part of the programme of events of the European Athletics Championships and Half Marathon will be the road race event in the programme, instead of the Marathon.

102.3. EUROPEAN MARATHON/HALF MARATHON CUPS

102.3.1. The European Marathon/Half Marathon Cups are competitions for national men's and women's teams and are incorporated in the marathon/half marathon events of the European Athletics Championships. Each European Athletics Member Federation may take part with one men's and one women's team.

102.3.2. Each European Athletics Member Federation entering a marathon/half marathon team shall take part with no fewer than 3 (three) and not more than 6 (six) runners.

102.3.3. The times of the first 3 (three) finishing runners of each team shall be aggregated in order to determine the finishing order, the team with the lowest aggregate time being the winner, and so on.

102.3.4. A tie shall be resolved in favour of the team whose last scoring runner finishes nearest to the first place.

- 102.3.5. All runners finishing shall be classified individually and shall be eligible for individual awards.
- 102.3.6 A team finishing with fewer than 3 (three) runners will not be classified in the team result.

Special format in the field events

- 102.4. In the finals of the horizontal field events, the competing order for the fourth and fifth rounds of trials shall be in the reverse ranking order based on the results after the first three rounds of trials. The competing order for the final round of trials shall be in the reverse ranking order recorded after the fifth round of trials.

103. ENTRIES AND CONFIRMATION

- 103.1. All European Athletics Member Federations in good standing shall be entitled to enter athletes in the European Athletics Championships.
- 103.2.1. No athlete may take part in the European Athletics Championships unless entered by the European Athletics Member Federation which he/she is eligible to represent in accordance with the IAAF Rules.
- 103.3. Subject to the exceptions stated below, only athletes aged at least 16 (sixteen) years on 31 December of the year of the competition may participate in the European Athletics Championships.
- 103.4. Only athletes aged at least 18 (eighteen) years on 31 December of the year of the competition may participate in the Shot Put (men) and Hammer Throw (men).
- 103.5. Only athletes aged at least 20 (twenty) years on 31 December of the year of the competition may participate in the 50 Km Walk (men) and Marathons/Half Marathons.
- 103.6. Each European Athletics Member Federation may enter up to 5 (five) athletes in each individual event of whom up to 3 (three) may participate provided all of them shall have achieved the qualifying standard for that event (see 108.1.3).
- 103.7. In each individual event, the current Reigning European Outdoor Champion will be invited to participate as a Wildcard, in the same event organised in the following European Athletics Championships, where this event will be staged, on the condition that the athlete in question is entered by his Federation in that specific event. If a Member Federation has four athletes in one event as result of this regulation, all four will be permitted to compete.
- 103.8. Alternatively to 103.6, each European Athletics Member Federation may enter one athlete in each individual event if such athlete has not achieved the qualifying standard for that event (see 108.1.3). The acceptance of these unqualified entries is at the discretion of the Technical Delegates, considering the number of entered athletes but always ensuring the quality of the event. The next ranked performances to the set entry standards shall be considered if complying with 103.6.
- 103.9. Only 16 national teams will be qualified to compete in each relay event. The qualification procedure will be based on the aggregate of the two fastest times achieved by national teams in the qualification period. A minimum of two different national teams, representing at least two Member Federations, must compete in the race for the result to be considered for qualification.

The Host Nation has the right to be represented with one national team in each relay race. If they wish to participate and are not qualified as indicated above, the number of national teams to qualify will be reduced to 15.

Up to 8 (eight) athletes may be entered for each relay. From these 8 (eight) athletes and from any other athletes entered for any event in the European Athletics Championships, 4 (four) athletes to participate in each round must be nominated at the time specified for the Final Declaration for that specific round.

- 103.10 Preliminary Entries: Not later than 5 (five) months (14:00 CET) before the first day of the European Athletics Championships, each European Athletics Member Federation shall send to European Athletics (usually via the teams' on-line entry system) a preliminary list of entries, indicating its anticipated numbers of athletes per event and the numbers of accompanying officials.
- 103.11. Final Entries: Not later than 8 (eight) days (14:00 CET) before the first competition day in case of 6-day Championships and 7 (seven) days (14:00 CET) in case of 7-day Championships, each European Athletics Member Federation shall send to European Athletics a final list of its entries, plus the names of accompanying officials. No subsequent changes may be made thereto without the consent of European Athletics.

No additional athletes will be accepted after the closing of the Final Entries.

Exceptional changes related to already entered athletes may be accepted by European Athletics, until the final confirmation deadline of the first competition day. In case of such changes, the respective Member Federation would be accountable for a financial penalty of EUR 1500 per case.

This amount would be deducted from the Member Federation's European Athletics subvention at the end of the year.

Final Entry information shall be supplied in the manner to be prescribed by European Athletics (usually via the teams' on-line entry system) and shall include such details as required by European Athletics, including the names and best performances of each athlete.

- 103.12. Final Declarations: Confirmation of Final Entries and the Final Declaration of athletes to compete shall be made according to the procedures defined in the Team Manual.
- 103.13. European Athletics may reduce financial support (for travel, board/accommodation grants, etc.) to any European Athletics Member Federation which, after having announced its participation, does not take part or attends the competition with a number of athletes and officials higher or lower than the number stated in the Preliminary Entry by 20% (103.10 above). The latter applies only if the Preliminary Entry is more than 4 (four).
- 103.14 Each European Athletics Member Federation may enter only those athletes who have received and hold a valid certification for having completed European Athletics Anti-Doping Education Programme – I Run Clean. The certification is to be achieved by all athletes in addition to fulfilling any requirements for the qualification for the event they are entered in.

104. APPLICATIONS TO STAGE THE EUROPEAN ATHLETICS CHAMPIONSHIPS

- 104.1. Any European Athletics Member Federation in good standing may apply to stage the Event provided that the proposed venue and city comply with the criteria established by European Athletics and that the application is made jointly with the proposed city.
- 104.2. Each applicant shall complete the European Athletics official application forms and supply such information and undertakings as European Athletics shall require. The applications shall be completed in English and any application that is not fully and properly completed may be regarded as invalid.
- 104.3. The European Athletics Executive Board shall approve the time and deadlines for applications, which shall be announced by the Office, and these will normally include:
- i. Indication of interest in the event bidding questionnaire.
 - ii. Bidding Seminar.
 - iii. Confirmation of candidature, with the name of the bid city.
 - iv. Formal application to be submitted by the Member Federation and City.
 - v. Decision of the European Athletics Council.
- 104.4. The written undertakings required to be submitted with the application shall normally include:
- i. The bidding European Athletics Member Federation's and city's joint undertaking to respect the applicable Rules and Regulations of the IAAF, European Athletics and other competent authorities and to enter into an organiser agreement with European Athletics.
 - ii. A guarantee(s) from the owner(s) that all official sites used for the event, including the stadium and road race courses or other events sites shall be free of all commercial and non-commercial advertising, identifications and/or franchises.
 - iii. A guarantee by the European Broadcasting Union (EBU) member of the bidders' country to act as host broadcaster in accordance with agreements between European Athletics and EBU.
 - iv. The undertakings in writing of relevant national, regional and other authorities that they support the application.
 - v. A guarantee from the respective authorities for the right of safe passage and free entry into the country to all participants and free import and export of material/equipment as necessary for the organisation of the event.
 - vi. A detailed budget of income and expenditure for the event.
- 104.5. Other than in exceptional circumstances, European Athletics will not accept any application if, at the time of announcing the confirmation of candidature for staging the Event, the stadium which is foreseen for the event is not completed. If a European Athletics Member Federation feels that there are exceptional circumstances it must inform European Athletics at the time of the candidature (Regulation 104.3.iii) accordingly and send all relevant documentation (construction plans, timelines and guarantees) and European Athletics shall have an absolute discretion whether or not to accept the confirmation of candidature. If an application is based on an uncompleted stadium, such stadium must be completed fully equipped and ready for use at least 3½ years before the anticipated date of the Event.

104.6. The European Athletics Council shall be entitled to amend or vary the above procedures if it is of the opinion that it is in the interests of the Event.

105. TECHNICAL REQUIREMENTS OF THE VENUE

105.1. The European Athletics Championships shall be staged in a stadium and city which are appropriate to the event. European Athletics may establish criteria by which the suitability of a proposed venue may be decided. The city shall be of an appropriate size and standing and the stadium shall have modern facilities and be fully equipped in conformity with the respective IAAF rules.

106. DOPING CONTROL

106.1. Doping control shall be conducted in accordance with the respective IAAF Rules and Guidelines and shall be carried out under the supervision of the European Athletics Doping Control Delegate.

107. THE ORGANISING CONTRACT

107.1 Immediately after the decision of the European Athletics Council to appoint an organiser, the appointed European Athletics Member Federation and city shall enter into an organising contract with European Athletics, such contract to establish the respective rights and obligations of the parties in relation to the European Athletics Championships.

108. THE RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF THE EUROPEAN ATHLETICS

108.1. Notwithstanding the organising contract, European Athletics shall retain the overall care and responsibility of the European Athletics Championships. In exercise of this role, the European Athletics Council shall:

108.1.1. Decide the dates, venue and the organiser.

108.1.2. Appoint Delegates and other persons (see 111.3).

108.1.3. Set qualifying standards for entry to the European Athletics Championships. Such standards shall normally be established not later than 30 April in the year preceding that in which the respective European Athletics Championships will be held and must be achieved in bona fide competition (either indoors or outdoors) between the 1st January in the year preceding the year in which the European Athletics Championships are held and the closing date for Final Entries. The European Athletics Council shall be entitled to vary the qualifying conditions if it is the interests of the European Athletics Championships so to do.

108.1.4. Decide the distribution of free places (quotas) as a basis for the subventions to the European Athletics Member Federations (each European Athletics Member federation shall be allocated free places for at least 1 (one) male and 1 (one) female athlete).). Any Member Federation having athletes selected under the rule 103.7 will receive additional quotas accordingly.

108.1.5 Approve the procedure for deciding the timetable of events.

109. THE RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE ORGANISER

- 109.1. The organiser shall be responsible for organising and staging the European Athletics Championships in accordance with the organising contract and in compliance with the Rules and Regulations and directions of European Athletics.

110. FINANCIAL REGULATIONS

The Organiser

- 110.1. The financial rights and obligations of the organiser shall be set out in the organising contract. Subject thereto, the organiser shall be responsible for all costs of organising and staging the European Athletics Championships but may retain the income from the sale of admission tickets, approved local marketing and subventions and grants from national and/or local authorities.

- 110.2 For the avoidance of doubt, the organiser shall be responsible for the costs of the following persons:
