Bydgoszcz 2019

WELCOME MESSAGE FROM EUROPEAN ATHLETICS' PRESIDENT

I am very pleased to welcome everyone to the European Athletics Team Championships Super League here in Bydgoszcz and once again offer a big thank you to the Polish athletics federation – Polski Związek Lekkiej Atletyki – for being such committed supporters of our sport.

European Athletics have become very regular visitors to this wonderful city in recent years and it was only two years ago that Bydgoszcz were the hosts of the very successful 2017 European Athletics U23 Championships.

Consequently, a significant number of the athletes competing here this weekend will no doubt be familiar with the Zawisza Stadium as well as the hospitality and expertise of everyone involved in the sports community here.

I have often seen Bydgoszcz described in the local and international media as Poland's 'home of athletics' and it is a deserving title.

Previous continental championships to have taken place here have included the 1979 European Athletics U20 Championships, the 2003 and 2017 European Athletics U23 Championships as well as the 2004 edition of this competition's predecessor, the European Cup.

Add to those events the 1999 IAAF World U18 Championships, the 2008 and 2016 IAAF World U20 Championships, and the 2010 and 2013 IAAF World Cross Country Championships and, as I wrote in my Welcome Message two years ago, Bydgoszcz has an outstanding roll of honour which is a testament to the enthusiasm of local athletics fans.

I am happy to repeat these sentiments and I continue to be a very enthusiastic visitor to Bydgoszcz.

Talking specifically about the European Athletics Team Championships, I am proud to say that this competition has established itself, after its inauguration in 2009 when it took over from the European Cup, as the world's premier team competition between nations. I feel sure that this latest edition of these Championships will only add to the competition's reputation.

Many medal winners from last summer's European Athletics Championships in Berlin will be here, and it is an important stepping stone en route to the IAAF World Championships Doha 2019 in less than two months' time, so the European Athletics Team Championships will grab the attention of athletics fans everywhere, not just in Europe but around the world.

This competition also has the added attraction of being the key selection event for the exciting Europe v USA international match that will take place in the Belarus capital of Minsk next month.

With all these factors in mind, I wish everyone an enjoyable and successful three days of competition.

Svein Arne Hansen
European Athletics President

Bydgoszcz 2019

WELCOME MESSAGE FROM MAYOR OF CITY OF BYDGOSZCZ

Ladies and Gentlemen,

It is a real pleasure for me to greet all athletes and guests in the city on the Brda river, which is always open to sports emotions. I am delighted that Bydgoszcz will become the arena of athletic tournament at the highest level, making the hearts of fans of the "queen of sport" beat faster.

Being the host of this year's European Athletics Team Championships means a serious obligation for us, but also gives us a reason to be proud. I firmly believe that Bydgoszcz will confirm once more that it deserves to be called the "Polish capital" of this exceptional sport discipline. On this occasion, I would like to thank once again the European Athletics for the confidence placed in us and to assure that we will do our best not to disappoint the expectations. We will do everything to make both the athletes and guests feel at home in Bydgoszcz during these special days, filled with sports emotions.

Dear fans! I wish you, as well as myself, many sporting emotions and unforgettable moments. May the special time of the Championships be our common holiday, and the inspiring power of cheering show our kindness to all competitors.

Rafał Bruski
Mayor of Bydgoszcz

Poland, officially the Republic of Poland, is a country located in Central Europe. It is divided into 16 administrative subdivisions. It is the sixth most populous member state of the European Union. Poland's largest city and also its capital is Warsaw. Other major cities include Kraków, Łódź, Wrocław, Poznań, Gdańsk and Szczecin.

Poland's territory extends across several geographical regions. The Baltic seacoast is situated in the north-west of Poland. This coast is marked by several spit, coastal lakes and dunes. The centre and parts of the north of the country lie within the North European Plain. Rising above these lowlands is a geographical region comprising four hilly districts of moraines and moraine-dammed lakes, of which the biggest one is the Masurian Lake District. South of Poland is a mountainous region with the highest Tatra Mountains.

1.2. Host city Bydgoszcz

Bydgoszcz is a city in northern Poland which, as the eighth-largest city in Poland, is also the capital of Kujawsko-Pomorskie Voivodeship. With a city population of 358,614 and the area of 175,980 km², it has developed into one of the most important economic centres in Poland. Thanks to its attractive location on the Brda and Vistula rivers running through the city centre, Bydgoszcz is a very popular tourist destination. The most important places in the city emphasis on water, since the daily life, cultural, sports and business activities takes place near the Brda river. It is an architecturally rich city, with neo-gothic, neo-baroque, neo-classicist, modernist and Art Nouveau styles. Its centuries-old traditions began in 1346 as the city was granted municipal right by king Casmir the Great.

River transport has always been important for the city and thanks to that it has earned the name of the biggest Polish centre of inland navigation. There is also an airport located only 3.5 km from the city centre which provides the city with excellent connections with other parts of Europe. Bydgoszcz is also one of the biggest railway junctions in Poland.

Many monuments of old Bydgoszcz can be found in the city centre. The oldest building is the three-aisle late Gothic Church of St Martin and Nicolaus. The symbol of the city is a sculpture named "Man Crossing the River" which stretches across the Brda River and was unveiled on 1 May 2004, the day when Poland joined the European Union. Among the most spectacular and atmospheric places in Bydgoszcz you can surely find the Mill Island. Located in the very heart of the city centre, it was here that the famous royal mint operated in the 17th century. The picturesque location of the Mill Island is emphasized by facades of 18th and 19th century granaries and Rothera's Mills. A number of museums, the proximity of the Opera and the numerous festivals and concerts that take place in the amphitheatre make this place the cultural centre of the city. It is also here that the European Team Championships' Opening Ceremony will take place.

Bydgoszcz is also called the capital of Polish athletics. Audience from all over the world gather here to admire also rowing, basketball, volleyball and speedway riders. The city has hosted numerous European and world events for instance 1st IAAF World Youth Championships, IAAF World Cross Country Championships, twice IAAF World Junior Championships, European U23 Championships and many more. This year it was also the place of the 1st Memorial of Irena Szewińska, the greatest Polish athlete and one of the world's foremost athletes for nearly two decades.

8.2. Post Competition Procedures

After the competition, athletes leave immediately through the mixed zone.

In the mixed zone, all athletes meet the media: first TV, then radio and finally the written press. It is for the athlete to decide whether he/she will give an interview.

8.3. The event

The European Athletics Team Championships are the heirs of the European Cup, which is what the event was known as from its creation in 1965 through to the last edition under the previous format in 2008. During this period, the event crowned two winners as there were separate men's and women's competition.

The European Athletics Team Championships have been held since 2009 and have taken place biannually since 2015. All the European Athletics Member Federations' national teams are divided into four leagues, with the Super League, First League and Second League comprising of 12 teams each, with the remaining teams in the Third League.

The European Athletics Team Championships is based on the compilation of points collected by the athletes during each event. Each of the teams has one representative in each of the 36 individual events on the programme: running - 100m, 200m, 400m, 800m, 1500m, 3000m, 5000m, 110m/100m hurdles, 400m hurdles and 3000m steeplechase; jumping - high jump, pole vault, long jump and triple jump; throwing - shot put, discus, hammer and javelin. Four relay races are also contested over the course of the weekend: the men's and women's 4x100m and 4x400m.

At the end of the 2019 edition, 5 teams with the lowest score will be relegated from the Super League to the First League and replaced by the best team promoted from the First League.

The European Athletics Team Championships Super League will be streamlined from twelve to eight countries in 2021. This pattern will be repeated across the lower leagues with the bottom

European Athletics Team Championships Super League

Bydgoszcz 2019

five countries in both the First League and Second League relegated while only the champions from the Second League and Third League will gain promotion.

8.4. Scoring

The European Athletics Team Championships comprises one single competition where men's and women's teams represent as a single team the respective European Athletics Member Federation.

The winner of each individual event and each relay in each match shall score as many points as there are teams competing in the respective League, the second will score one fewer, and so on. Athletes or relay team with no valid performance, disqualified or not finishing shall not score.

In case of qualification rounds held for the track events, the athletes who competed, but did not qualify for the finals, would receive points according to their ranking, based on the amalgamated results of two heats (i.e. overall ranking from 9 to 12).

In case an athlete qualified for the final, but subsequently had no valid result (i.e. either DQ or DNF or DNS), he/she will still be eligible to receive minimum points according to the qualification rounds (e.g. taking 8th place in the overall ranking). In case there are more than one athlete with no valid results in the final, the relevant points will be equally distributed.

In case of heats the results of the two are amalgamated, with the athletes' times determining their placings. In case of a tie between athletes in the different heats for races up to 400m inclusively and relays the photo finish judge shall consider the actual times to the 1/1000th of a second. If the tie cannot be broken the attributable points shall divided equally between them. (2/3 League)

If two or more athletes tie for a place in any event, the attributable points shall be divided equally between them.

The team having the highest aggregate number of points shall be the winner of the European Athletics Team Championships Bydgoszcz 2019.

If two or more teams have the same aggregate number of points, the tie shall be decided in favour of the team having the greater number of event winners. If the tie still remains it shall be decided in favour of the team having the greater number of second places, and so on. (Regulation 602.12).

European Athletics Team Championships Super League

Bydgoszcz 2019

9. CEREMONIES

9.1. Opening Ceremony

The Opening Ceremony will take place on Thursday 8 August commencing at 20:00 on the Old Market in Bydgoszcz. It consists of a coloured flags parade, speeches and music concert "Travel around the Europe".

9.2. Victory Ceremony

The victory ceremony for the first three teams will take place on Sunday 11 August, after the 4x400m relays at 18:45.

10. DEPARTURE

Media representatives will be asked to provide full travel details in the final entry system and will also receive a departure form, which should be completed and returned to the media welcome desk at the media centre, at least 24 hours before departure, only in case there are any changes to the preliminary confirmed details.

Departure times of the shuttle buses from the hotel will be provided and displayed at the hotel information desk and welcome desk at the media centre.

All outstanding fees, charges and possible other expenses must be settled with the cashier.

Appendix 2 – Event Draw

EUROPEAN ATHLETICS TEAM CHAMPIONSHIPS SUPER LEAGUE BYDGOSZCZ 2019
Lane and Starting Order Draw

Special Draw for races up to 400m: For the Super League, races up to 400m inclusively will have qualifying round on the first day. The heats and qualifying procedures will be arranged by the Technical Delegate in accordance with the IAAF Competition Rules.

4x100m and 4x400m relays will be staged in two heats of 6 teams each. The teams' distribution per heat will be according to the teams scoring standings 1 (one) hour before the scheduled time for each event. The best scored teams will compete in the same heat which shall be the last event of the session of track events.

Lanes 2-7 will be used:

- Lanes 4-5-6 will be allocated to top three athletes/relay teams.
- Lanes 2-3-7 will be allocated to the remaining athletes/relay teams.

On 800m all athletes will start in lanes (2 athletes in lane 2, 4, 6 according to a draw).

Starting Order for all other events:
